Presented by Marc Rader, faculty (part-time) at Morling College, the Baptist Theological College of NSW & ACT, and Preaching & Teaching Pastor at Gymea Baptist Church. He is an excellent communicator whose infectious love for the Bible and lively delivery will engage your heart and mind.

Beginning in 2010 we are launching the Morling Public Lecture Series at Inaburra School in south Sydney, featuring short, six week electives, prepared and taught by Morling faculty. Each elective is designed to deepen your understanding, increase your knowledge and, along the way, expose you to the possibility of further study at Morling. There are no assessments and the only pre-requisite is a willingness to learn. So why don't you grab a friend and come along.

GETTING THE MOST FROM YOUR BIBLE

Monday's: 22 Feb, 1, 8, 15, 22 & 29 Mar

7:30 pm - 9:30 pm at Inaburra School, Billa Rd, Bangor

$40 per person

A perfect starting point for new believers who can't make head or tail of the Bible as well as more mature believers who want to get more out of reading the Bible. You will be provided with skills and resources to read, understand and apply the Bible more effectively. General principles of biblical interpretation will be explained and a variety of biblical literature explored.

WHAT MAKES THE OLD TESTAMENT TICK?

Monday's: 17, 24, 31, May; 7, 14, 21 June

7:30 pm - 9:30 pm at Inaburra School, Billa Rd, Bangor

$40 per person

The events of the New Testament are largely incomprehensible without an understanding of the Old Testament. For too many Christians, however, the Old Testament remains unread (and misunderstood) apart from a handful of well known texts. This unfortunate reality can be traced to a general lack of understanding of what makes the Old Testament 'tick'. You will be given a general overview of the Old Testament with an emphasis on key events, people, concepts and the context in which it was written.
