Becoming a Movement of Men

Our special guest speaker this year is Duncan Brown who has a passion to see the church become a platform for people to realise their potential in Christ.

Duncan Brown is the Senior Pastor of New Peninsula, a contemporary evangelical church of over 1000 people on Victoria's Mornington Peninsula.

He is also the chairman and founder of Capacity Builders, a company formed to empower not-for-profit organisations – predominantly Christians - to realise their visions. Duncan is also on the boards of Samaritans Purse and the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association.

Morning - Tough questions – Marc Rader

Afternoon Panel – questions from the floor

Afternoon : Steve Dixon – 'Man Up!' – taking bold steps to connect the generations of men
Electives Karl Faase – 'Why men hate going to church' – what should we do about it
Gary Speckman – 'Band of Brothers' – discovering the secrets of a man's soul
Marc Rader – 'Lessons along the journey' – reflections on a life of discipleship
Paul Summers – 'Walking with the Holy Spirit' - as you walk across that room
